MADISONVILLE KENTUCKY

GOOD WORDS

For Rev. W. A. Grant Now Stationed at Earlington

HAS MADE A FINE RECORD AT HODGENVILLE, WHERE HE IS POPULAR WITH ALL

Rev. W. A. Grant, Methodist minister in charge of the Hodgenville and Buffalo churches, left Tuesday for Morganfield where he will attend the Conference, says the Hodgenville Herald.

Before leaving, Brother Grant stated to a representative of the Herald that he did not know whether he would be returned to his present charge or not. The Conference will result in a number of changes and whether he will be among those placed in other towns will not be known until the meeting adjourns.

Rev. W. A. Grant

Since his residence here Brother Grant has done a great work for good, and has built up his churches in a manner that deserves the highest praise. But it is always these good men that are taken away from charges that they have labored earnestly in and have built up and placed again with another heavy burden on their hands only to remove that and shoulder another. His conscientious work here could have done nothing only attract the notice of those higher up in the affairs of the church and while nothing can be said for certain it is doubtful if Brother Grant will be returned to this charge.

During the time in which he has had the Hodgenville and Buffalo churches in his charge, about 38 new members have been added, over four thousand dollars has been raised, and other people, which, while as important as these is not so easily visible. Brother Grant has kept his members enthused with the work, has built up Sunday Schools, has increased attendance at prayer meetings. He has done such work that it will be a great loss to the members of the two churches to give him up. He will remain away about a week or ten days, after which he will return to his home here to stay or to make preparations to go elsewhere. His friends and co-workers are all devoutly wishing for the former.

Play to an Appreciative Audience

The Henderson Elk's Merry Minstrels played to a most appreciative audience at the Garrick Theatre in Madisonville, Wednesday evening, Oct. 22. Seldom is an amateur performance so well staged as was this one.

The end men could not have been better, their jokes were rich and rare, keeping the audience in one continuous uproar, while Master Frank Woodward as the black face midget was captivating in his clever impersonations.

The ballad singers responded to encores after encores and in no way could this performance be improved upon--each and every one acting his part well.

CUTS OUT FUEL OIL

Standard Oil Company Will Stop Sale of Crude Oil December 1st

MEANS HEAVIER DEMAND FOR COAL AND COSTLY CHANGES FOR FACTORIES

Chicago, Oct. 24.--There will be no more fuel oil sold by the Standard Oil Company after December 1st and this action on part of the big oil company will have a big effect on the coal business all over the country, because coal and other substitutes must be used in place of this unrefined oil. In Chicago alone scores of million of barrels of crude oil are burned every year. The International Harvester Co., uses 8,000,000 barrels annually in its furnaces. Thousands of factories throughout the country are using fuel oil and will have to change to coal or other more expensive fuel. The cause for abandoning the sale of crude oil is that the phenomenal increase in the use of gasoline in many lines demands that the crude product be not wasted; and that it is more profitable to keep and refine the crude oil. This will cause extensive changes in manufacturing equipments and methods in many lines and will compel the advance in prices of many products of manufacture, particularly in the steel and iron trade.

WILSON-MARSHALL CLUB

Holds Interesting Meeting Last Evening and Enjoy Talk by Hon. John C. Duffy

The Earlington Wilson-Marshall Club held its regular weekly meeting at the City Hall last evening. There were about 200 members present and the names of forty-five additional members were added to the already large membership of about 600.

The meeting was called to order by President Barnett and the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read, both of which were very flattering.

Mr. Henry W. Rogers served the club as secretary filling Mr. Maloney's place who was called to St. Louis on business. So well did Mr. Rogers fill the secretary place he was unanimously chosen by the club to poll the city of Earlington which he in a nice little address to the members agreed to do within the next two days.

The Honorable Jno. C. Duffy, of Hopkinsville, the speaker of the evening, made an excellent talk on the political issues of the day, substantiating his statements with facts and figures. He was frequently interrupted by continued applause from his large and attentive audience, whose attention he held to the man for more than an hour and a half. His talk was not only instructive but indeed interesting, and the Earlington Club is to be congratulated on having secured so able a speaker as Mr. Duffy.

Chinese Barbers in Hard Luck.

Barber shops were the exception, rather than the rule, in China in the old days, itinerant barbers attending to their customers' wants in the streets or in the customers' home. There appears to be no tendency toward the institution of barber shops since the change of hairdressing; in fact, the tendency locally is to do away with the barber altogether. Thus many families are purchasing hairclippers, which seem to be regarded as the only essential to haircutting.

Saves Leg of Boy

"It seemed that my 14 year old boy would have to lose his leg, on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote D. F. Howard, Aquone, N. C. "All remedies and doctors' treatment failed till we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles, 25c at all druggists.

Band for Pigeons.

To place a band on a pigeon, hold the hind claw back and press the front claws through the ring; draw the ring close up to the knee joint, and then, when on a level with the extremity of the hind claw, gently pull the hind claw through the ring, and the ring will be in position and will not, unless it has been placed on at too early a date, fall.

FLORENCE LAWRENCE

Now Appearing in VICTOR Release of Universal Co.

Florence Lawrence peer of all Moving Picture actresses will appear only in the Victor pictures released once a week by the Universal Film Manufacturing Co. After being out of pictures for over a year, Miss Florence Lawrence comes back to her own and is delighting thousands of people all over the country in every theatre where Universal Pictures are shown. Miss Lawrence's absence has been sorely missed by thousands of people who know who's who in Moving Pictures.

She comes back stronger and better than ever. The year that she has been away has been spent in traveling abroad and this seems to have given a finished touch to her work that was wholly lacking before. You all perhaps know that her strong point is comedy, but now she is just as good, if not better in dramas. You will have a chance to see this talented young lady's work here in town for Mr. Walker, manager of the Idle Hour Theatre has promised us every picture that Miss Lawrence will appear in. He is to be congratulated on securing such fine pictures as the Universal Co. are turning out. And we are sure that if his pictures in the future hold to the same high standard they have in the past he will continue to have the good will of our city. And he is promising us something better every week in the future.

BACKACHE NOT A DISEASE

But a Symptom, a Danger Signal Which Every Woman Should Heed.

Backache is a symptom of organic weakness or derangement. If you have backache don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Read about Mrs. Woodall's experience.

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a man's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it."—MRS. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Select the Beautiful Way. There is a beautiful and an ugly way in which to say almost everything, and happiness depends upon which way we take. You can upset a person for a whole day by the harsh way in which you may call him in the morning, or you may give him a beautiful start by the cheerfulness of your greeting. So not only in words, but in all the little common courtesies and duties of life, think of the beautiful way of doing each.—D. L. Porter.

Encouraging Him. Bashful Youth—"I'm so afraid to see your father. Did anyone else ever ask him?" The Maiden—"Yes, Arthur, and they suffered like heroes."—The Club-Fellow.

Meeting Opportunity. To face every opportunity of life thoughtfully, and to ask its meaning bravely and earnestly, is the only way to meet supreme opportunities when they come, whether open-faced or disguised.—Maltbie D. Babcock.

Ruthless Destroyer of Books. The most ancient destroyer of books known was the Babylonian king, Nebonassar, who in the third century, B. C., destroyed all the records of the reigns and rules precedent to himself.

Pitfalls to Avoid. Argument, as usually managed, is the worst sort of conversation; as it is generally in books, the worst sort of reading.—Swift.

Poor Rich. Sometimes poverty consists in just feeding the poor. Half the millionaires in the country don't know how much they are worth.—Atlantic Constitution.

ton, and also at the International Sunday School Convention at San Francisco. One of these has been fittingly called the "music king" and the other the "piano wizard."

The International Association will be represented by Mr. W. C. Pearce of Chicago, who for many years has been at the head of the organized adult Bible class movement in America. He will speak on such topics as "The What and How of Teacher Training," "The Adult Bible Class and Its Meaning to the World," "The Sunday School Organization," "The Bible in Action." Mr. Pearce is a man of deep spiritual power and will help every one who has the opportunity of hearing him.

Dr. Palmer on Program. Rev. F. N. Palmer, D. D., of Winona Lake, Ind., will have four periods of Bible study. Dr. Palmer will attend only a few conventions this year, and Kentucky has been peculiarly fortunate in securing him at this time.

He is now one of the most successful Sunday School workers in America. One of his addresses will be "The Boy Over Fool Hill."

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF KENTUCKY

State Convention Will Meet at Paducah

OCTOBER 29 TO NOVEMBER 1.

Famous Musicians to Be Present. Among Noted Speakers Are W. C. Pearce, Rev. F. N. Palmer, Rev. W. Fred Long and Various State Leaders and Divines.

The Forty-seventh Annual Convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association will be held in Paducah Oct. 29-Nov. 1. The state executive committee has put forth every effort to make this the greatest convention ever held in the state, and in forming the program has secured experts covering every department of Sunday School endeavor. The pastor, the superintendent, the teacher, the pupil, the parent, all who are in any way interested in building up a true citizenship for our state and who desire to have the right influences come into the lives of the boys and girls, will find something helpful at the various sessions and conferences of the convention.

The music will be in charge of Professor E. O. Excell of Chicago, who will have as his pianist Professor A. W. Roper of Winona Lake, Ind. These two men led the music at the World's Sunday School Convention in Washington.

Her Household Gods. Miss Oddways in receiving a friend in her new apartment the other day said cordially: "Well, here I am, you see, in my new home, with all my lasts and pennants gathered about me."

Felt the Sting of Failure. "What," asked the hunter who had mistakenly shot a guide, bending down eagerly, "is your name?" "Smith," gasped the guide, with his last breath. The hunter's face fell. "And I came up here," he exclaimed, ruefully, "in pursuit of rare game?"—Puck.

His Example. Teacher—"Bobby, give me an example of the word 'dampen.'" Bobby (after a moment's thought)—"Paw says maw is too dampen-ticular about his feet bein' wiped."—Boston Transcript.

Men of Various Pursuits. A policeman, a quarryman and a roadmender were among the prize winners at an arts and crafts exhibition held in Yorkshire (England) village recently.

To Clean Fountains. The best way to clean drinking fountains which cannot be reached on the inside, is to use scalding hot water and a big handful of shot. Fill the fountain about a quarter full of hot water, and then pour in the shot. Shake the vessel briskly so that the shot will scrape along the bottom and sides of the fountain. This will remove the scum and leave the fountain sweet and clean.

Leading to Higher Things. Men and women are created by imparting to them noble qualities of which they are not conscious; and by giving them responsibility.

ton, and also at the International Sunday School Convention at San Francisco. One of these has been fittingly called the "music king" and the other the "piano wizard."

The International Association will be represented by Mr. W. C. Pearce of Chicago, who for many years has been at the head of the organized adult Bible class movement in America. He will speak on such topics as "The What and How of Teacher Training," "The Adult Bible Class and Its Meaning to the World," "The Sunday School Organization," "The Bible in Action." Mr. Pearce is a man of deep spiritual power and will help every one who has the opportunity of hearing him.

Dr. Palmer on Program. Rev. F. N. Palmer, D. D., of Winona Lake, Ind., will have four periods of Bible study. Dr. Palmer will attend only a few conventions this year, and Kentucky has been peculiarly fortunate in securing him at this time.

Fred Long, general secretary of the Mississippi Sunday School Association, will be among the speakers and comes to pay a visit to his old home, as he is a Kentuckian and spent most of the years of his early manhood in Paducah. He is now one of the most successful Sunday School workers in America. One of his addresses will be "The Boy Over Fool Hill."

Kentucky Speakers. Among the speakers from Kentucky will be Judge C. C. Grassham of Paducah, Hon. J. B. Weaver of Louisville, president of the state association; Rev. George A. Joplin, general secretary of the state association; Hon. Huston Quin of Louisville, chairman of the state executive committee; Rev. T. C. Gebauer of Henderson, Mr. W. J. HAIR HEALTH

If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble, Take Advantage of This Offer

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if it did not do all we claim it will. Should our enthusiasm carry us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

We assure you that if your hair is beginning to unnaturally fall out or if you have any scalp trouble, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is without question the best remedy we know of to eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness.

Our faith in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we ask you to try it on our positive guarantee that your money will be cheerfully refunded if it does not do as we claim. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, St. Bernard Mintz Co., Incorporated, Drug Dept.

The Lamp of Life.

The comparison of human life to the burning and going out of a lamp was familiar with Latin authors, as we know by the term senes decrepiti. Plutarch explains the origin of this metaphor thus: The ancients never extinguished their lamps, but suffered them to go out of their own accord—that is, by the last crackle. Hence a lamp just about to expire was said decrepitare, to cease to crackle. Hence, metaphorically, persons on the verge of the grave were called decrepit men.

Takes Laurels From Brooklyn.
"Don't call Brooklyn the City of churches," says a Globe Trotter, who is equally familiar with the Hudson, the Rhine, the Ganges and the Nile. There is a city in India which is looked upon as "holy" by Buddhists and Brahmins which might dispute the title. Benares has about 2,000 temples and in these and fixed in the narrow streets where the public is free to worship are about 500,000 idols. According to Hindoo belief, it is the gate to paradise, to which all who dwell within its walls enter immediately.

A Good Salesman.
"Well, Jingle," said the manager, "did you make the sale?" "Yes," said the salesman. "I couldn't get the darned old machine to run over half speed, but I arranged with one of the town constables to arrest us for exceeding the speed limit, and old Skeezicks fell for it right away."

Arsenic Most Frequently Used.
Arsenic has, perhaps, been more frequently used than any other poison for criminal purposes. It has been proved identical with the "wonderful elixir" of the seventeenth century, when secret poisoning became so frequent in Italy that the clergy, despite the rules of the confessional, acquainted Pope Alexander VII. in 1648 with the extent of the practice.

Eagle Not Always Brave.
Eagles are generally believed to be very courageous. That they are not always as brave as is supposed is proved by the following anecdote: A naturalist tells of a combat between ten missel-thrushes and a white-tailed eagle, in which the latter was thoroughly vanquished, and was discovered squatting down in a shed, where he had been driven in hope of refuge from the angry birds.

A woman ought at least to have as much faith in her husband as she has in her powder rag.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Argus Complained.
"A hundred eyes are of no use unless there are a hundred knot holes in the fence," he mourned.

Kind Words.
Kind words are the music of the world. They have a power which seems to be beyond natural causes, as if they were some angel's song which had lost its way and come to earth. It seems as if they could almost soften the hard and angry hearts of men. No one was ever corrected by a sarcasm; crushed perhaps if the sarcasm was clever enough, but helped never.—F. W. Faber.

Founder of S. P. C. A.
The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was founded in 1865 (Incorporated 1866) by Henry Bergh, a New York author and philanthropist. He also secured the passage of much legislation protecting animals. He died in 1888.

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Are Appreciated by Earlington people.

Thousands who suffer from backache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another, finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one medicine that has earned a reputation for lasting results and there is plenty of proof of its merit right here in Earlington.

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now makes his testimony even stronger.

John Franklin, Earlington, Ky., says: "I have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills nor any other kidney remedy since this preparation cured me some years ago. You are at liberty to use my testimonial as heretofore. I had pains in the small of my back when stooping or lifting and I became tired easily. I also had headaches and dizzy spells and had to get up at night to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills proved their merits by relieving me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

United on Deathbed.
A pathetic marriage ceremony took place the other day, in a Budapest hospital. A German singer named Erdos, who was appearing professionally in the Hungarian capital, was suddenly taken ill with heart weakness a few days ago. He telegraphed to his sweetheart in Frankfurt, Germany, to come to him. The girl started at once, and arrived in Budapest promptly. They were married immediately in the hospital ward, and Erdos died an hour after the ceremony.

Sweet Charity.
"Has it ever occurred to you that the more money a man has the more difficult it is for him to be charitable? When one is poor and has only a few cents it is an easy matter to divide the money with some poor devil who has none."

Optimism.
Leonidas, king of Sparta, when defending Thermopylae against the Persian host under Xerxes, was told by one of his soldiers that the Persian arrows were so numerous that they obscured the light of the sun. "Never mind that," was the reply; "we shall have the advantage of fighting in the shade."

Fewer Willing to Sell Their Hair.
Owing to the fact that the young countrymen of France, under the spreading influence of the cities, are becoming more particular as to the appearance of the girls they "walk out" with, peasant girls are becoming less and less willing to sell their rich tresses to hair dealers. At the great Limoges hair fair, held in the market place of the city, there were fewer dealers present than ever before. The supply of hair is falling and prices ranged from $1.50 to $1.85 a pound.

For Women Who Care

Of course you use an antiseptic in your family and in the care of your own person, and you want the best.

Instead of what you have been using such as liquid or tablet antiseptics or peroxide, won't you please try Paxtine, a concentrated antiseptic powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

Paxtine is more economical, more cleansing, more germicidal and more healing than anything you ever used.

Paxtine
ANTISEPTIC

In the toilet—to cleanse and whiten the teeth, remove tartar and prevent decay. To disinfect the mouth, destroy disease germs, and purify the breath. To keep artificial teeth and bridgework clean and odorless. To remove nicotine from the teeth and purify the breath after smoking. To eradicate perspiration odors by sponge bathing.

As a medicinal agent for local treatment of feminine ills where pelvic catarrh, inflammation and ulceration exist, nothing equals hot douches of Paxtine. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. has been regularly advising their patients to use it because of its extraordinary cleansing, healing and germicidal power. For this purpose alone Paxtine is worth its weight in gold. Also for nasal catarrh, sore throat, inflamed eyes, cuts and wounds. All druggists, 25 and 50 cents a box. Trial box and testimony of 31 women free on request.

Old Roman Ink.

Wax-coated tablets and the stylus furnished the material wherewith the old Romans did their ordinary writing, but for permanent records, there were used a reed pen, parchment, and a kind of liquid pigment or ink.—Harper's Weekly.

When Wrinkles Come.

The first wrinkle of age comes on the side of the cheek just in front of the ear and its possessor is, as a rule, the last person to notice it. Just behind the ear there is usually a falling off of the roundness of the neck, and the hair becomes thin, leaving a bald look on the woman over 40 if she is not careful to remedy these important blemishes. Massage will do more for these growing imperfections than almost any other facial defect.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enoch Loller, of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For sale by All Dealers.

Spolling Children.

Little children give their mother the headache; but if she lets them have their own way, when they grow up to be great children they will give her the headache. Fondness spoils many, and letting little faults alone spoils more. Gardens that are never weeded will grow very little worth gathering. All watering and no hoeing will make a very bad crop. A child may have too much of its mother's love and in the long run it may turn out that it had too little.—C. H. Spurgeon.

"Oh, doctor," exclaimed the nervous young wife, as the eminent surgeon entered the sick room, "if an operation is necessary, we want you to operate immediately. Expense is no object at all." "We will operate at once," replied the eminent surgeon without even glancing at the patient.

Time Well Spent.

One minute spent in appealing for divine guidance appears to have been one minute well spent.—Rochester Herald.

Wall of the Pessimist.

"Yes, I consider my life a failure." "O Henry, how sad! Why should you say that?" "I spend all my time making money enough to buy food and clothes, and the food disagrees with me, and my clothes don't fit."

What Sterne Said.

Sterne once said that the most accomplished way of using books is to serve them as some do lords; learn their titles and then brag of their acquaintance.

Genuine Belgian Charity.

Around a hut where, according to tradition, a young Irish princess was murdered, grew up the present town of Gheel, in Belgium, which became known as "the colony of the crazed." At first a temple in memory of the princess was erected and later it became a refuge for the "sick in mind." The remarkable thing about this Belgian town is that the residents accept patients in their own homes so that they may enjoy the beneficial effects of domestic and social intercourse.

Sweets for Children.

If you desire to keep your children healthy and yet satisfy their natural craving for sweets, give them the sugar in its natural form. Candy is injurious, but honey, preserved figs and dates, raisins and maple syrup are just as much appreciated by the small folk as the manufactured sweets.

Foxes Not Easy Prey.

Foxes often kill buzzards and the smaller hawks that have been impelled to attack them through hunger. They have mainly done this by dragging the birds through branches and brushwood; for they usually have their talons deeply imbedded in their intended victim, and are unable to let them go.

Lilacs and Lilacs!

Mr. Cliffe—"By George! When we get into our suburban home I'm going to grow lilacs." Mrs. Cliffe—"Don't do it, Henry. I like you much better smooth shaved."

An Ideal.

I know of no more encouraging fact than the unquestionable ability of a man to elevate his life by a conscious endeavor. It is something to be able to paint a particular picture, or to carve a statue and so make a few objects beautiful; but it is far more glorious to carve and paint the very atmosphere and medium through which we look, which morally we can do.—Thoreau.

Way of the Truly Great.

It is easy in this world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after one's own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.—Emerson.

Her Opportunity.

Young Husband—"What a glorious day! I could dare anything, face anything on a day like this!" Wife—"Come on down to the milliner's!"—Flegende Blaetter.

Better Pay First.

It is hard to pay for bread that has been eaten.—Danish.

Ever Thus.

"Pa, what's political knavery?" "What the other side's doing, my son."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Bacteria Not Necessary to Life.

Though bacteria of many kinds live in most animals, a French experimenter has disproven the theory that they are essential to life. It was claimed that a chicken lived absolutely free from micro-organisms, and growth and development went on as usual.
